

START

Equal to equivalent

(adjective)

Easily broken; not flexible

brittle

(adjective)

Of, form, or similar to the regions near the equator.

tropical

(adjective)

Lacking a strong flavor.

bland

(adjective)

Hot and moist.

tropical

(adjective)

Not irritating, exciting, or disturbing

bland

(adjective)

The act of being made known by name

introduction

(noun)

A strong desire.

craving

(noun)

A number of similar things grouped together.

cluster

(noun)

The act of buying.

purchase

(noun)

Something that is bought.

purchase

(noun)

A joining or bringing together.

combination

(noun)

A smell or odor, especially a pleasant one.

aroma

(noun)

Something spoken or written before the main part.

introduction

(noun)

A liquid used as a drink.

beverage

(noun)

To eat or drink.

consume

(verb)

To grow to help to grow

cultivate

(verb)

to prepare land for the growing crops.

cultivate

(verb)

To send goods to another country for sale.

export

(verb)

To remove or take out.

extract

(verb)

To cause to know; to make known by name.

introduce

(verb)

To buy.

purchase

(verb)

To bring to the attention of, especially for the first time.

introduce

(verb)

To use up.

consume

(verb)

To gather or come together in a group.

cluster

(verb)

To do away with or destroy.

consume

(verb)

To bring into use.

introduce

(verb)

To join or bring together.

combine

(verb)

To have a strong desire for.

crave

(verb)

FINISH